

After submitting, it redirects to the profile page, showing all of that glorious information added.

A screenshot of the Novelty website's profile edit form. The page has a wood-grain background. At the top left is the Novelty logo. At the top right is a 'Profile' link. Below the logo is a search bar and navigation links for 'Home', 'Recommendations', and 'Add a book'. The form contains the following fields: 'Profile Picture' with a source URL, 'Personal Information' with 'Name' (John Doe) and 'Age' (31), 'Interests' with the text 'I love books, I love Novelty, Give me points.', 'Anything else' with a text area, 'Favorite' with a text area, 'Book' with 'HTML & Css: The Complete', 'Author' with 'Thomas Powell', and a 'Finish' button.

Upon going back to edit profile, the information is saved for easy editing.
